

I strongly object to allowing more control of media by even fewer corporations. This regulation must not pass! The public interest must be the highest priority.